

WOMEN'S SCHOOL 2022

Stand up and be visible!

There's so much going on just now that affects women in the Fire Brigades Union, the Fire and Rescue Service and in wider society. Women's School is the place to get involved, have your say in your union, and find out how to make a difference on a wide range of issues and campaigns.

This year's School will have speakers, discussion groups, activities, workshops and recreational sessions. There'll be something for everyone, whether you've been involved in the union for a while or you're brand new and want to find out what's happening.

- ★ Understanding the union
- ★ Health and safety for women
- ★ Maternity rights and policies
- ★ Understanding what 'organising' means in the FBU (in particular women's organising)
- ★ Positive action vs positive discrimination
- ★ Sexual harassment - from silence to justice
- ★ Campaigning and making a difference

12noon on Friday 8 April to 2pm on Sunday 10 April 2022

Wortley Hall near Sheffield

Fully residential with accommodation and food provided and travel and other costs reimbursed

FBU women are changing the world. Women's School is your opportunity to meet other FBU women, share experiences and be part of those changes. You're needed and you have plenty to offer so come and get involved – speak to your Women's rep or find someone to contact at <https://www.fbu.org.uk/sections/women>
